

THE GILBERT AND SULLIVAN SOCIETY LIBRARY

AT THE BARBICAN MUSIC LIBRARY

Over 250 books for reference The Library of The Gilbert and Sullivan Society is housed in the Music Library at the Barbican. The books include newly acquired recent publications, together with other books transferred from The Society's museum. The works are available for reference only. They are accessed on request from a member of the Library staff who calls them up on a computer screen.

The Barbican Music Library holds a huge selection of reference works. The arrangement is an entirely by members of the general public, we in turn can consult from the Barbican's stock.

Getting there

The Barbican Complex is housed in the heart of the City of London. Both Moorgate and Barbican Underground stations are within close walking distance. From the Main Entrance of the Barbican, exploration may still be needed. The Society's Library is in the Barbican Music Library, downstairs from the Main Library on the Library Level.

Opening hours

Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday 9.30 am - 5.30 pm
Tuesday 9.30 am - 7.30 pm
Saturday 9.30 am - 12.30 pm
